Subject: Re: Speaking inquiry

Thanks for writing [Removed], We appreciate your response and willingness to be part of this year's event, together we will work this out and make this event a success, We do believe you will have a tremendous impact at this year's event and we promise we will be a blessing to you as well.

After your email careful and with full consideration and meeting with the Church EOC and sponsors of this event, we will be glad to have you for the three days of the event as it fits into the budget allocated by our sponsors, this way you will be privilege to be part of the team that will launch the new church auditorium and thats a huge privilege for you as well. With the figures you outlined that means your net speaking fee will be USD 23,000.00 for the three days of this event. This is acceptable to us . This means your will speak for 60-90 minutes of each of the three days plus some questions and answers sessions inclusive.

About having your wife come with you is very much acceptable as you are allowed to come with an accompanying person with all expenses on the Church All we need from you is your preferred flight itinerary as we do have our travel agent who will make sure you get the best First/business class flight . We will also be taking care of the extra night you will be staying here in Cape town as we are responsible for your stay throughout here in south africa, including ground transportation .

Once this term is accepted , we will like you to advise if we can proceed, if we can , i will have the Church event organizing committee contact you with more information about this event as well as binding documents which includes official letter of invitation and contract agreement .

Please advise if we can proceed.

You are blessed.
